STATUTES RELATING TO CENTRE FOR AMBEDKAR'S STUDIES,
RESEARCH & EXTENSION-2004 IN THE UNIVERSITY OF MYSORE

1. Preamble and Justification:

Dr. B.R.Ambedkar was a man of versatile genius, economist, jurist, constitutionalist, social reformist, a political thinker, a champion of the downtrodden and above all a great humanist. His relentless struggle has not only awakened British administration but also opened the eyes of the caste Hindus regarding the unjust social, religious and political practices of the country. His erudition and learning reflected in his speeches and writings have served as a beacon light for rational approach towards the existing social and religious problems. Thus Ambedkar's thoughts have assumed more relevance in the globalised society today. With a view to inculcate his ideals and thoughts among youth and others, to undertake research and extension activities for disseminating the basic tenets and values propounded by Ambedkar to evolve an egalitarian society, the establishment of a Centre for Ambedkar Studies, Research and Extension in the University of Mysore was felt necessary, as it is one of the oldest Universities in the country and the same has been established in the year 2000. Further, the Platinum Jubilee Chair for Dr.B.R.Ambedkar Studies established in the year 1994 (which was supposed to be rotated among various departments as per the Statute framed for the purpose under Section 35(n) of the Karnataka State Universities Act 1976) is proposed to be attached with this Centre.

Hence, the following Statutes have been framed.

2. Short Title:

These Statutes shall be called "CENTRE FOR DR. B.R.AMBEDKAR STUDIES, RESEARCH AND EXTENSION STATUTES-2004" framed under Section 40(1)(f)(h) and (i) read with Section 29(2)(1), 34(6),(7)(8) and 33(1)(2) of the Karnataka State Universities Act – 2000.

3. Commencement:

These Statues shall come into force from the date they are assented to by His Excellency the Chancellor.

4. Brief Description:

The Centre for Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Studies, Research and Extension shall be one of the Teaching and Research Department of the University of Mysore and shall offer courses in Ambedkar Studies. The Centre shall conduct teaching and research programme leading to Certificate, P.G. Diploma, M.A., M.Phil, and Ph.D, degrees and organize extension programmes on Ambedkar's philosophy and related areas.

5. Objectives:

- 5.1 To study Ambedkar's thoughts and philosophy and their relevance to the contemporary society;
- 5.2 To study the impact of ideologies of Ambedkar such as Liberalism, Democracy, Socialism and Marxism in reconstruction of Indian Society;
- 5.3 To study the impact of various socio-political ideologies on Ambedkar's thinking;
- 5.4 To study Ambedkar's constitutional and legal thoughts and their relevance in the contemporary society;
- 5.5 To study contemporary versions of religion with special reference to Buddhism as perceived by Ambedkar;
- 5.6 To compare and contrast Ambedkar's philosophy with Buddha, Basaveshwara, Jyothiba Phule, Karl Marx, Gandhi, Lohia and other social thinkers;
- 5.7 To study Ambedkar's perception of socio-economic change;
- 5.8 To offer courses at different levels to teach Ambedkar's ideology and philosophy to the youth in particular and others in general;
- 5.9 To undertake research, publishing, training and extension activities on and about Ambedkar and his philosophy and related areas.

6. Departmental Council:

As provided under Section 34(6) of the Karnataka State Universities Act 2000, the Centre shall have the Departmental Council consisting of the members as prescribed therein.

7. Board of Studies:

As prescribed in Section 33 (1) & (2) of the KSU Act, 2000 there shall be a Board of Studies in Ambedkar Studies and shall carry on its functions as per the Statutes of the University in this regard.

8. Teaching and other Staff:
