BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Studies in Law was established in 1973. The Department was first headed by Prof. Sreekantaiah. Subsequently, Prof. C. K. N. Raja joined the department as Professor of Law and became the Chairperson. In South India, this Law department is at the forefront in providing higher education in law. It offers two years (4 Semesters) of LL.M Programme with optional branches such as Constitutional Law, International Law and Business and Trade Law. It promotes research and a Ph.D. in Law is also available. The LL.M study at the University of Mysore is known for the high component of training in Law research. The candidate has to fulfill the degree with dissertation work. Some of the student dissertations are published and have earned much appreciation.

The DOS in Law is known for intensive and high-quality teaching. Therefore, students from various parts of India, as well as foreign countries such as Kenya, Tanzania, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan and Tibet seek admission here. The building is equipped with a good library, computers and other technological facilities. Every year, approximately 10 to 12 foreign students join the Department.

DEPARTMENT
STUDIES IN LAW

VISION

To create a centre of excellence in the field of legal education. To inculcate social responsibility and reach out to the disadvantaged sections of the society through our legal service programs. The department intends to disseminate the knowledge on legal education to all.

MISSION

DOS in Law seeks to give students sufficient opportunities to learn. It exposes them to real societal problems through practical work. We provide an opportunity for students to work with eminent jurists, practical lawyers, judicial officers, civil society organizations, administrators, industries and so on via the Dissertation/Project Work. We empower them by making them acquire knowledge with our inter-disciplinary courses. We also try to ensure that students get better placements in the various law colleges, industries, legal firms, public sector and corporate bodies.
