Award Winner 2015-16

National Service Scheme, University of Mysore.

Indira Gandhi National Award Winner 2015-16

Background : In 1969, NSS started in 37 Universities across the country. University of Mysore is also one among them. The University has started its NSS in 1969 with a strength of 1100 volunteers in 11 selected colleges. Now, it has been introduced as an important youth programme sponsored by the Ministry of youth affairs and sports in 180 colleges with the volunteer's strength of 18000. Under the guidance of many Vice-Chancellors of the University, the NSS coordinators did a wonderful job in effective implementation of NSS objectives such as Environment protection, health and hygiene, awareness camps, leadership development etc. The University is able to develop a relation between institution and community by implementing Govt. of India's schemes like SwachBharath, KaushalyaBharath, Fit Indiaprogramme and PoshanAbhiyan etc. The NSS also has played a very prominent role in creating awareness among publics and students to keep the Mysore city Cleaner and greener which brought laurel to the Mysore city as the cleanest city of India consecutively for two years during 2014 and 2015. The university has got Indira Gandhi National Award for the year 2014-15 in recognition of its significant contribution to the community development through National Service Scheme. Apart from implementing NSS activities at College level, the University of Mysore is hosting an Empanelled Training Institution (NSS-ETI) with the financial support from the Ministry of Youth affairs and Sports, Government of India to train newly appointed NSS Programme officers of different Universities and Directorates of Karnataka state. The University of Mysore has recently constructed a very good building called NSS BHAVAN exclusively dedicated for NSS activities including the training programmes for NSS officers.
