Statutes Relating To "Babu Jagjivan Ram Studies, Research And Extension Centre" Framed Under Section 29[2][1], 34[6],[7] [8] And 33[1][2] Of The Karnataka State Universities Act-2000

1. Preamble:

India is a unique country with unity in diversity. Over the years many eminent personalities in different spheres have contributed to shape the destiny of this great nation. Babu Jagjivan Ram is one among them. Born in a poorest of the poor family in Bihar- the most backward region- Jagjivan Ram rose to the status of Deputy Prime Minister of this world's biggest democratic country. Known for his courage, dynamism, intelligence and oratory skills even during childhood days, Ram was attracted by great leader like Madan mohan Malvia, Mahatma Gandhi, Rajendra Prasad, Sardar Patel, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and many others. Worked hand in hand with these leaders in freedom movement, he naturally occupied key positions in Central Ministry nearly four decades. Having held important portfolios like Defence, Agriculture, Railways, Labour, Babu Jagjivan Ram made his name felt at every place. It is Jagjivan Ram who called for Green Revolution and thereby made the country and its millions of people free from the problem of food and starvation and achieve self-sufficiency in food production. His initiatives for enactment of labour laws and reformation in Indian Railways made industries and railways to flourish. As a Defence Minister, Ram exhibited highest order of discipline and civility and kindled the minds of youth to gain self-confidence and thereby raised the flag of India's Defence Force on the International map. His contribution towards the post emergency crystallization of democratic norms was considerable. As a people's representative with commitment, leader with dynamism, reformer with concern, Champion of Social Justice and advocate of democracy, Ram left unforgettable stamp in the Parliament.

Babu Jagjivan Ram was thus, one among rare gems of mother India. His thinking and ideals for social reformation and nation building have reflected in his speeches in the parliament and outside. These have more relevance in today's global society. With a view to carry out in-depth study of the contribution of Babu Jagjivan Ram and to disseminate the basic tenets and values propounded by him, it is proposed to establish "Babu Jagjivan Ram Studies, Research and Extension Centre" in the University of Mysore as it is not only one of the oldest University in the country but has always initiated new experiments and programs in higher education and set its leadership edge in reaching the fruits of higher education to Recognizing the contribution of this rare gem, the Government of Karnataka on the request of the University sanctioned Rs. 10.00lakhs vide Order No EL 60 UMV 1999, Bangalore dated 5.10.1999 to establish a Chair in the name of late Sri Babu Jagjivan Ram. Accordingly, Statutes for establishing Babu Jagjivan Ram Chair were framed and got approval of the University Syndicate and Senate and the Government. The Chair was formally inaugurated on 18th August 2003 in the University of Mysore. Further, keeping in view the Birth Centenary Year [2007] of late Sri Babu Jagjivan Ram, the University Grant Commission, New Delhi has extended financial assistance and four posts of teaching and research under special Grant vide order No.F.6-4/2003[SU-I] dated 5th December 2006.
