CIRCULAR

Ref: D.O Letter . No.F.1-4/2011 (SA-III) E-content , Dated 18 April
2013 of the chairman, UGC, New Delhi.

The Chairman, University Grants Commission, New Delhi, in his letter cited under reference has stated that the UGC has taken upon itself the responsibility of development of E-content in 77 subjects at post-graduate level. This initiative has aptly been named as e-PG Pathshala. Under this initiative, the UGC proposes to create high quality material in four quadrants, in different subjects across all disciplines. This material will be made available to both the teachers and students in the form of Open Online Courses through a Learning Management System (LMS) set up at the INFLIBNET Centre as well as through Sakshat portal.

Accordingly, the UGC solicits the contributions from academic experts belonging to various educational institutions. It is in this backdrop the Chairman, UGC has requested to identify and convey the list of eminent faculty members who are willing to contribute in this important exercise. The list of subjects identified for this initiative is enclosed at Annexure-1. The details of the initiative can also be had from web at <http://www.inflibnet.ac.in/epgp>.

In view of his it is hereby informed to send the list of eminent Faculty Members who are willing to contribute in this exercise
