Dr. Babu Jagjivanram Studies, Research and Extension Centre
UNIVERSITY OF MYSORE
Manasagangotri, Mysore-06

Babu Jagjivanram was one of the most illustrious leaders of our country. His name has been one of those embossed in golden letters on the political and social scenario of India for the remarkable role he played on various occasions. Babu Jagjivanram has immensely contributed to the progress and development of our nation.

In this connection, Babu Jagjivanram Study Chair was inaugurated on August 18th 2003 in the University of Mysore. And this chair was worked under Department of Studies in History at Manasagangotri, Mysore. Later on it was shifted to Department of Studies in Political Science, Manasagangotri, Mysore.

During this time Babu Jagjivanram Study Chair was having its own independent building at Manasagangotri campus, Mysore and it is one and only in the Nation also. To construct the building with financial assistance from Sri. C.H.Vijayashankar, Honorable Member of Parliament, Mysore Constituency, Mysore.

Babuji is even today an exemplar of patriotic virtue. With a view to carry out an in depth study of his contributions and to disseminate the basic tenets and values propounded by him, the University of Mysore, with the munificent financial assistance by the State Government, established Babu Jagjivanram Studies, Research and Extension Centre. The University of Mysore is one of the oldest universities in the country which has initiated new experiments and innovative programmes in the field of higher education setting its leadership edge in reaching the fruits of higher education to larger masses. By establishing Babu Jagjivanram studies, Research and Extension Centre, University of Mysore has opened the doors to study the different aspects of Babuji's life, his political and social philosophy.

At Present, the Chair has become a part of the Dr. Babu Jagjivanram Studies, Research and Extension Centre which came into force from June, 2010. The UGC has generously granted a financial assistance under Institution of Excellence Scheme Project to construct the Babu Jagjivanram Studies, Research and Extension Centre.

The Centre is engaged in pursuing its studies and research pertaining to Babu Jagjivanram, his life and works, his illustrious political career, speeches and contribution to the development of the nation. The Centre, endowed with a practical outlook, is also endeavouring more to carry the ideals of Babuji to remote corners of city and rural belts. It is also joining hands with several Governmental and other agencies in reaching out valuable information of the programmes and facilities offered by the Government towards the cause of rural development, upliftment of the rural masses, women empowerment and betterment of the downtrodden.

Honorable speaker of the Lok Sabha Dr. Meira Kumar laid the foundation stone for the Centre's new building on May 18, 2010 and now it is completed and the building was inaugurated by Hon'ble Minister for Social Welfare Sri. Narayana swamy, Government of Karnataka and at the same time Museum was inaugurated by Hon'ble Minister of Medical Education and District In-charge Minister Sri. S.A.Ramadas, Government of Karnataka. The new building is accommodating a Museum, Seminar hall, Class Rooms and Library.

In this we have appointed 7 members to this project for six month.

Seminars and Extension Activities

The Centre conducts Seminars at State as well as National levels and extension activities in both urban and rural areas with the intention of propagating the ideologies and thoughts of Babu Jagjivanram. The Centre also conducts extension programmes regularly on topics of current interest including health, education, government policies and programmes for the welfare of the poor people.

Future Plans of the Centre

The Babu Jagjivanram Studies, Research and Extension Centre is one of the important research Centres of the University of Mysore and is engaged in research and extension activities reflecting Babuji's thoughts on different issues and areas. Such activities and extension programmes would be on various social issues relating to agriculture, economics, food production, defence management, labour welfare, secularism, social harmony, women studies and ideals of Babu Jagjivanram.

The Centre is also starting the P.G.Diploma Course in the Academic year 2014-15 and intending to include a paper on Babu Jagjivanram, his life and works as a Choice Based Credit system and Continuous assessment patterned studies to implement with this P.G.Diploma Course

Museum

The Centre has established a museum as a separate wing where photos and available items depicting the life, achievements and career of Babuji are exhibited. We planned to construct the independent building to the museum on second floor of the Centre. Regarding to this Sri. Adaguru H. Vishwanath, Mysore Parliament Member has given 25 lakhs in his MP fund to construct the Babu Jagjivanram museum building.

Library

It is planned to develop a unique library with collection of books including e-resources on and about Babu Jagjivanram and other thinkers and as well on problems of weaker section of the society. The library of the Centre has a modest collection of books on Babu Jagjivanram and areas of his activities and achievements in Kannada, English and Hindi. The Library is being contemplated to be named after Babu Jagjivanram where books on Babuji published in all languages will be made available for the use of researchers and students.

At Present about 2000 books are available in the library. Our programs photo album-15 is also in the Centre.
